The goal of the James E. Allen Work Activity Center is to provide our special needs students with the vocational experience they need to succeed after graduation. Our students work on contract jobs from various industries and they receive a pay check for their work. During our over forty years of existence, we have maintained an excellent reputation for reliability and quality control. In most cases, we are able to provide pick-up and delivery. The companies who support our program have all developed a special feeling for our students.

If you feel that our Work Activity Center can be any assistance, please contact our coordinator.
